Circular No. 5/2012

Date: 21.05.2012

To,

All the DYDs, DYLA's, DYPs & REXCO,

Dear Fathers/Sisters/REXCO Members,

One day a young boy asked Dr. Kalam that, What influenced you in your young age?

Kalam answered through sharing an incident. He told that:” when I was in 8th grade. I was the monitor of his school. It was 14th August 1947. My teacher said that at 12 o'clock midnight we are going to get freedom so I should bring all the students to the school to listen to the commentary on radio. Exactly at 12 o'clock midnight British flag was lowered and the Indian flag at Red Fort was hoisted. It was a beautiful experience. Panditji spoke in Hindi and English But we could understand neither of them because they knew only Tamil.

Next day there were two photographs in the newspaper. First photograph was showing Panditji hoisting the flag. Kalam was glad to see that. The second photo was my school education, my college education and my life education. The second photograph was showing Shri Mahatma Gandhi walking barefooted on the streets to remove the pain of the people as there were Noakali riots.

Can you see the nobility of the leadership? Others were celebrating their success in the Red Fort, Mahatma Gandhi was not doing that. That clearly indicates that he gave the power and position to other leaders but he was busy in removing the pain of the people. He was a great leader. That photograph had the beautiful influence on my life. We have to have nobility of life, nobility of leadership and nobility in whatever we do.” Let us prepare the good leaders.
